

Grand Jury Is Given Evidence in $832,000 Embezzlement Case

By the Associated Press

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Evidence in the alleged embezzlement of $832,000 from the Mergenthaler Linotype Co. was presented to a Kings County grand jury today as Brooklyn authorities awaited the arrival from Miami of one man named in the case and issued a Nation-wide alarm for two others wanted for questioning.

District Attorney Miles F. McDonald called as the first witness before the grand jury Mrs. Grace Nickel, wife of William Arthur Nickel, 40, bookkeeper and auditor for the Mergenthaler Co., now en route to New York after his arrest in the Florida city.

The two men for whom the county-wide alarm was broadcast were identified by Assistant District Attorney Julius Helfand as Joseph Millstein, 45, and James Collins, also known as Julius Lobel or Julius Davis.

Will Call Auditor. In addition to Mrs. Nickel, Mr. McDonald said he would call as witnesses officials of the Mergenthaler Co. and an auditor.

Mrs. Nickel's husband left Miami early today in custody of New York authorities to face grand larceny and forgery charges in connection with the alleged embezzlement. He was arrested Thursday night at a small hotel, where he had registered as "Philip Haas."

Nickel waived extradition and was quoted by Mr. Helfand as saying in a long-distance telephone conversation that he would reveal "the whole story" on his arrival in New York tomorrow.

Earlier today Mr. McDonald ordered all records, books and filing cabinets in the Manhattan offices of the Mergenthaler Linotype Co. removed to Brooklyn.

Arraigned on Two Charges. Isadore Rappaport, 55, president of the firm, was arraigned yesterday in Brooklyn Felony Court on charges of forgery and grand larceny in the case.

Another man questioned today by the district attorney's office was Irving Lazarus, 46, secretary-treasurer of a New York check cashing firm, whose president, Joseph Kupsnecker, 50, is being held at Kings County Civil Jail in $100,000 bail as a material witness in the case.

Helfand said Kupsnecker's firm had cashed $450,000 worth of checks in the alleged embezzlement.

Lazarus' Not Involved. Authorities emphasized Lazarus was not involved in the embezzlement, but was merely being questioned to see if he could give any help.

An affidavit signed by Detective Robert Kelly of the forgery squad said that Rappaport "acting in concert with others did conspire to commit the crime of grand larceny and forgery and cause to be forged fraudulent invoices, issued false and forged invoices and by means of those thereby unlawfully obtained checks in payment of said invoices, thereby defrauding the Mergenthaler Linotype Co. of large sums of money."

Actress Sees Prosecutor. Glenda Farrell, actress, and her son, Tommy, 22, talked with the district attorney for an hour last night. Mr. McDonald said the son gave him information about one of the persons for whom he is hunting.

2 Georgia Papers Resume As Printers End Walkout

By the Associated Press

COLUMBUS, Ga., Nov. 4.—The two Columbus newspapers—the morning Enquirer and the afternoon Ledger—resumed publication today after settlement of wage differences which resulted in a walkout of printers last Thursday.

Pressmen and stereotypes left their jobs in sympathy with the printers, who failed to report for work at the end of a 30-day grace period following expiration of the old contract.

Under that contract the printers, members of the International Typographical Union, AFL, had a 40-hour week provision with $1.35 per hour for day work and $1.42 for night work. This was equivalent to $54 and $56.80, respectively, per week.

The new contract, retroactive to October 1 for time worked, calls for $1.67 and $1.74, respectively, for day and night shifts, $62.63 and $65.25 for a 37½-hour week. The third shift—between the night and day shifts—gets seven cents more than the night shift.

The union had asked $1.74 per hour for day work and $1.81 at night.

Girl Scouts Hold Rites At Catholic University

By the Associated Press

Girl Scouts of the C. U. Campus School were hosts yesterday to the Girl Scouts of District 5 in the Shrine of the Immaculate Conception at the Catholic University of America at 3 p.m. More than 100 girls took part in observing Catholic Girl Scout Sunday. The Boy Scouts of the Campus School assisted.

Rev. Gerald A. Ryan, J. C. D., director of the Campus School and assistant professor of religious education at the university, was the principal speaker. Mrs. John Evans, chairman of Girl Scouts at the Campus School, was assisted by the three leaders, Mrs. Lawrence Burdette, Mrs. Otto Hauck and Mrs. James Toner.

In 1945, 789,000,000 pounds of foods were frozen by industrial processes.

Sam Beard Testifies Before Grand Jury Hearing Garsson Case

Sam Beard, self-styled gambler, testified today before the Garsson grand jury, apparently in connection with the case of the Cumberland Lumber Co. and other Garsson companies.

Beard also informed the committee evidence that he cashed checks for officers of the Cumberland Lumber Co. and other Garsson companies.

The witness told the Senate Committee last summer that he cashed several checks for the late Albert Levin, a Washington attorney who was a director of the Cumberland Lumber Co., of which Representative May, Democrat, of Kentucky, was the Kentucky fiscal agent.

Beard also informed the committee that he cashed checks for Joseph F. Freeman in connection with operations of the Garsson offices here. Freeman was Washington agent for Henry M. and Murray W. Garsson.

Beard was not connected with any Garsson concern.

At the committee hearings, Beard described himself as a professional gambler and said he had cashed the checks as a personal favor to Levin.

Two Virginians Questioned. Before Beard arrived at the District Court Building as a previously announced witness, the just-returned Virginia men who reportedly had talked at one time with Representative May about possible purchase of the Cumberland Lumber Co. They did not, however, buy the property. The two witnesses were H. Claude Probst, Jr., a lawyer, and B. B. Burns, Jr., a lumber dealer of Wise, Va.

Miss Josephine Perkins, also of Grundy, secretary to Mr. Probst, was scheduled to be heard later today.

The three other witnesses waiting to be called were Miss Norma Nelson, Miss Gaye Scott and Miss Bertha Brown, all of Washington. So far as could be learned, they were never employed by the Garsson companies.

Britain Suspends Action On 10-Million Czech Credit

By the Associated Press

LONDON, Nov. 4.—A Foreign Office spokesman said today Britain had suspended action on a $10,000,000 credit to Czechoslovakia after consultations with the United States.

State Department officials announced last month the Export-Import Bank had been asked to suspend negotiations for a $50,000,000 credit to Czechoslovakia.

Both American and British credits were to have taken the form of surplus war materials.

One of the factors reported to have influenced the American decision was that the Czechs were planning to sell some of the surplus war goods to Romania at a profit.

The Foreign Office spokesman said "this factor was borne in mind" when the British government had the matter under consideration.

Why Thousands of Doctors Have Prescribed PERTUSSIN FOR BAD COUGHS

(CAUSED BY COLDS)

Pertussin must be good when thousands of doctors have prescribed it for so many years. Pertussin acts at once to relieve such coughing. It actually loosens phlegm and makes it easier to raise. Safe and effective for both old and young. Pleasant tasting, too!

Army Has Enrolled Nearly One Million Veterans in Reserve

By the Associated Press

The Army's postwar reserve force is taking definite shape with nearly a million officers and enlisted veterans enrolled, the War Department disclosed yesterday.

At scheduled rates or faster, officials indicated, the framework of the Reserve Corps is going up at the same time the Regular Army is steadily declining in size, and the smaller National Guard is trying to conquer difficulties in getting men to fill out its ranks.

The reserve, under Army plans, will be an elastic force capable of emergency expansion to 3,000,000. Fewer than 700,000 would be in full strength units ready for "M-day" mobilization.

Ban on Information Lifted. The following developments were revealed with the lifting of a temporary official ban on information, following heated criticism of War Department policies by leaders of the National Guard Association in September:

1. The entire relationship between the Organized Reserve Corps and the National Guard has been under official review with no hint whether the review was by War Department or War Pattern and Gen. Eisenhower have approved changes.

Maj. Gen. Milton A. Reckord, Maryland's adjutant general, told the National Guard Association at its Buffalo meeting that the War Department had engaged in "double dealing" by favoring the reserves in postwar reorganization. He asserted there had been "silly, uneconomic competition" for manpower between the Army's two major civilian components.

2. More than 2,000 ground force reserve units already have been activated in class "C," or skeleton form, with only officers assigned. Flight training of wartime flyers has been started at 48 Army airfields, of 130 contemplated in official plans.

3. Latest reports list some $24,000 enlisted men enrolled for three years, along with 444,624 officers, who signed up for five years upon release from active wartime service. Former GI's initially were slow to obligate themselves to peacetime training and to immediate active duty in an emergency.

By comparison the National Guard, organized into units trained for M-day readiness, hopes to enroll no more than a third of its full strength of 682,000 by next July.

48 Headquarters Set Up. Reserve headquarters now have been set up in all 48 military districts, corresponding generally to the States, and instructors have been assigned to most.

Current conferences on policy are expected to develop new specific proposals to be submitted to Congress for training "class A" full strength reserve units on a part-time basis, with the same rates of pay as provided for the National Guardsmen.

Officials said the initial list of activated reserve ground force units would be published possibly this week. Twenty-five reserve divisions are to be organized, compared to the National Guard's 27, including 17 infantry, three armored and three airborne. In addition there are to be some 16 separate antiaircraft, engineer and corps artillery brigades.

Canterbury Asks Exchange Between English Churches

LONDON, Nov. 4.—A proposal by the Archbishop of Canterbury, Dr. Geoffrey Fisher, that "full communion" be established between the Church of England and other Protestant bodies in the United Kingdom provoked wide discussion today.

Dr. Fisher said in a Cambridge sermon yesterday that he believed the time had arrived for an unhindered exchange of ministers among the churches and for members of each denomination to take communion in the churches of the others.

The Times of London said there would be general agreement with the archbishop's statement that his proposal avoided "the fearful complexities of a premature constitutional union," and approved the lowering of church barriers "so damaging . . . to the moral reconstruction of the world."

Dr. Fisher said the non-Episcopal churches could guard most effectively "against the abuses of episcopacy" by "taking it into their own system"—that is, by instituting bishops of their own in preparation for the time when each Christian communion "should contribute the whole of its separate ministry" to all other ministers willing to recognize it.

Army, Navy Appoint Six Experts To Work With Atomic Group

By the Associated Press

The War and Navy Secretaries today named the six-man Military Liaison Committee which will work with the Atomic Energy Commission. Each service placed three representatives on the group. It will advise the commission on "all matters relating to military application of atomic energy, including development of bombs and control of information to the manufacture or utilization of atomic weapons," a joint announcement said.

LT. Gen. Lewis H. Brereton, wartime commander of the Far East 8th and 10th Air Forces, heads the Army delegation. The chief of the Navy group is Rear Admiral Thorvald A. Solberg, head of the Navy's research and standards branch of the Bureau of Ships. Admiral Solberg was a member of the staff of the Army-Navy atom bomb task force at Bikini.

The other Army members are Maj. Gen. Lunsford E. Oliver, commander of armored troops, including the 4th and 5th Divisions, during the war, and Col. John H. Hinds, who held the wartime rank of brigadier general and was artillery commander of the 2d Infantry Division during the war.

The additional Navy representatives are Rear Admiral Ralph A. Ofsie, who served as aviation officer on the staff of Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, and Rear Admiral William S. Parsons, deputy commander for technical direction of the Bikini tests.

Atomic Energy Board At Oak Ridge on Tour

OAK RIDGE, Tenn., Nov. 4.—Three members of the Atomic Energy Commission, headed by Chairman David E. Lilienthal, arrived here today for a two-day inspection tour of the Government's atomic energy plants.

Mr. Lilienthal, accompanied by Sumner T. Pike and Dr. R. F. Bacher, said the visit was a preliminary to an inspection trip planned here shortly by the entire membership of the five-man Civilian Control Commission appointed last week by President Truman.

U. N. Delegates Pay Tribute to Roosevelt In Rites at Grave

By the Associated Press

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Nov. 4.—Delegates from the 51 United Nations paid tribute to the memory of Franklin D. Roosevelt yesterday at ceremonies during which Russian Foreign Minister Molotov and other high ranking diplomats placed wreaths on the grave of the late President.

Mr. Molotov, in a statement to the press following the ceremony, said: "I feel that the sentiment of the Soviet delegation can best be expressed in the following terms: 'Franklin D. Roosevelt, President of the United States, was the man who led the world to victory over Hitler and Japan.'"

These are the words I would like to utter in Hyde Park," he said. China, Venezuela, Canada, Yugoslavia and Nicaragua also had floral tributes on the grave.

Spaak, president of the United Nations Assembly, placed flowers for the U. N. Mr. Molotov personally placed his wreath on the grave with the assistance of Andrei I. Vishinsky, Soviet deputy minister of foreign affairs. It was inscribed:

"From V. M. Molotov, Minister of Foreign Affairs of the U. S. S. R." Andrei Gromyko, permanent representative to the Security Council, and Nikolai V. Novikov, Soviet Ambassador to Washington, were in the Soviet delegation.

In the United States delegation were Senator Connally, Democrat, of Texas, and Representative Helen Gahagan Douglas, Democrat, of California. Great Britain was represented by Sir Hartley Shawcross, France by Alexandre Parodi and China by Dr. V. K. Wellington Koo. After the ceremonies the delegates were entertained at tea by Mrs. Roosevelt at her nearby cottage.
